

AN ORDINARY DAY OF MY LIFE

As I am an ordinary girl, so somewhat it's the sort of ordinary lifestyle one can have. There is nothing decorative and amusing in this blog. It's just a normal day of my life. Anyhow, let's start it desiring it looks and sounds captivating.

A RANDOM MORNING

First foremost, I am not a morning person. The alarm bursts on me at 6:30 and pisses me off. After wandering for almost 30 minutes on my bed. I, fortunately, remember that I have to leave for my university at 7:30. Then, I run towards the washroom, wash my face, perform the chief task of brushing my teeth, and then do my hair. Finally, I am able to get out of my room.

I usually take one cup of tea in the morning, as I am a tea lover. It shouldn't be wrong if I say that I can't live without tea. Basically, I have to leave home at 7:30 to attend my class at 8 am. After getting all my vital stuff into my bag that is my phone, charger, and my earphones. These things are considered to be fuel for my day. After that, I finally leave and rush to my university at 7:40, as always late. My university is at a distance of almost 15 to 20 minutes from my home. Still, I am late all the time because being a sleepy person with a lot of things to do is quite hard. At least one day a week, I am on time and my classmates and mam of international relations are pleased with me.

A TYPICAL EVENING

There are consecutive classes from 8 to 12. After that, I got some time to go to the cafeteria and eat junk as I am a foodie person as well. Then, I go to the library and read the newspaper and some books. Despite the facts, I love to read and write. I really enjoy reading and writing. But, I don't like to read newspapers but I have to read because I'm a student of journalism. This might amaze you but yeah, from nowhere I got stuck in journalism. At 2 pm I have to take my last class of political science and I am in haste to go home at 4. Reaching home, I take my lunch again as foody. After that, I took a long nap forgetting all the assignments and tasks.

ME TIME NIGHT TIME

When I come back to the world after a very long nap. I go out of my room, spend some quality time with my mother as she is my best friend, annoyed and teases my brother then they do the same, then I have an entertainment segment with my father as he has a much more chill personality. At almost 8:30 I have dinner with my family members. Then, I came to my room, used my mobile phone, did my assignments, and wrote a little. I also love to do a lot of research, so at 11:30 I have decided on a topic every day to research. Then, I watch a series or a movie. After that, I finally go to sleep at 2 am.
